Merseyside Resilience Forum Structure
v9 August 2015

Executive Group
Chair: Merseyside Police

MRF Secretariat
(MRF Programme Manager and MRF Secretary)

Business Management Group
Chair: Merseyside Local Authorities

Hazards & Risks Chair : MFRS	Capabilities (Mitigation & Planning) Chair: Local Authority	Training, Exercising & Validation Chair : MFRS	Warning & Informing Chair : Merseyside Police	Business Continuity (Compliance / preparedness monitored by MRF Secretariat
- Compile Community Risk Register (CRR) annually - Reflect National Risk Register - Identify and assess local and temporary risks - Seek assurance (via Capabilities Group) that mitigation measures and capabilities stated in the CRR are in place / maintained - Identification of critical infrastructure - Contest / Prevent - Core Cities	- Use CRR to priortise workload - Review capability and capacity of MRF partners against the CRR and other relevant risk profiles - Interoperability / telecoms. Resilience (HITS, MTPAS, NRE) - Protection of critical infrastructure - Generic major incident planning - Flooding / severe weather - CBRN - Maritime & coastal - Humanitarian assistance (incl. highways) - Evacuation & shelter - Water distribution & sanitation - Animal diseases - Recovery - Voluntary Agencies & Faith Sector Forum - Mutual aid - Mass Fatalities - Extra Deaths	- Use CRR to prioritise workload - Develop, deliver and monitor MRF training (incl. 'Gold', 'Silver', 'Bronze' development - Develop, deliver and monitor MRF exercising and validation - Merseyside Training & Exercising Bulletin - MRF annual emergency preparedness workshop (elected members, multi-agency senior officers)	- Use CRR to prioritise workload - Test, monitor and assess public awareness of risk - Scope, plan and deliver Merseyside-wide multi-agency risk awareness/preparedness campaigns and events - Develop and maintain Merseyside Prepared website; monitor website activity ("hits"), act as governance group for website content - Recommend media/warning & informing training and exercising opportunities - Merseyside Media Protocol in an Emergency - MRF Warning & Informing Plan - Publish CRR annually	